OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS SUPPORTS OPEN ACCESS

As the largest university press publisher of Open Access (OA) research, Oxford University Press (OUP) is opening the doors to research you can trust. In 2022, we published over 22,000 OA articles. More than 110 of our titles are fully OA, with 400 journals offering OA publishing options.

READ AND PUBLISH

OUP is helping drive the transition to OA through its Read and Publish deals. These agreements provide a sustainable way to increase your OA input along with access to OUP's world-class journals scholarship. Your researchers can publish in trusted OUP journals with the Article Processing Charge (APC) covered as part of the agreement, maximizing the visibility and impact of your institution's research.

For example, OA articles published in hybrid OA journals have more than 75% higher Altmetric scores, 100% higher page views, and more than 50% higher citation counts compared with non-OA articles.*

HOW IT WORKS

- When publishing an OA paper with a journal covered by the Read and Publish deal, your researchers can request that the APC fee is covered by their institution under the terms of the agreement
- The institution can approve requests and monitor remaining account funds via a secure, straightforward online dashboard

WHY CHOOSE A READ AND PUBLISH DEAL WITH OUP?

- Increase your OA input at reduced cost
- Simplify your budgeting with a transparent agreement tailored to your institution
- Enjoy access to OUP's prestigious Journals Collection
- Benefit from OUP's rigorous peer and editorial review process
- Empower your researchers to share their scholarship with the global community
